Objectives:

Students will identify Winston Churchill and be able to locate when and where he gave his speeches by organizing and designing a timeline and map.

Materials:

Computers
Paper
Writing utensils

Procedure:
To begin my lesson I will ask the students, “Does anyone know who Winston Churchill is?” After hearing their responses we will briefly discuss Winston Churchill’s life history and accomplishments. The students will use computers and research his famous speeches and find out the dates and locations of each of his speeches throughout his life. The students will design timelines of each of his speeches and a map that shows the location in which he gave each of those speeches.

Assessment:

For the assessment of this lesson I will use a rubric to assess the student’s time lines and maps. I will also award participation grades for the research session in the computer lab.
