Join the Winston Churchill Kids Club

A year's worth of fun, educational activities for children ages 6-12!

About the WC Kids Club

The National Churchill Museum is pleased to welcome you to our WC Kids Club. Our mission is to provide your child with a fun yet educational experience where they learn all sorts of information about World War I, World War II, the Cold War, and, of course, Winston Churchill.

Upon registration, the member will receive a WC Kids Club Savings Stamp Album. Throughout the course of one year, upon date of registration, the member will receive one War Savings Stamp for each activity completed. For every four War Savings Stamps, the member will receive a replica War Savings Bond certificate. Once all sixteen stamps are collected, the member will receive a cool prize.

Each month the WC Kids Club member will receive an e-newsletter with that month's calendar of events and club updates. Members also receive a birthday card that can be turned in for a special prize or free museum admission.

Age Group

Children ages 6 to 12

Activities/Calendar of Events

There are a variety of activities scheduled in which members can receive stamps. Ones specifically for younger children are our Children's Programs, which are once a month.

Savings Album and Prizes

All children must be signed up in order to receive a Savings Stamp Album and War Savings Stamps. Please have children bring their Album to each activity.

Club Fees

Registration for WC Kids Club is FREE. However, there may be fees associated with individual activities (not to exceed $5.00).

Please Take Note

At least one parent must accompany their child for every activity!

Temporary Exhibit

October 9, 2009-
October 30, 2009
Anson Cutts Gallery

Topic: Vanished: German-American Civilian Internment, 1941-48
Traces Museum, Minnesota

During World War II, the U.S. Government interned 15,000 German-American civilians, including citizens and 4,058 Latin-American Germans brought here and later exchanged for Nazi-held Americans. Perhaps the least known chapter of American WWII history, its legacy has implications for today. VANISHED illustrated this unknown story through narrative texts, artifacts and multimedia.

Children's Program

Saturday
October 17, 2009
11am-Noon

Topic: German-American Children in Internment Camps
Cost: Free
Requirement: Children ages 6-12

In conjunction with our traveling exhibit, "Vanished: German-American Civilian Internment, 1941-1948," we are going to learn how German-American children coped during their stay in these internment camps. We will also make some traditional German handicrafts, like the ones internees made.

Have a wonderful summer!

At the Movies: When the Wall Came Tumbling Down

Saturday
November 14, 2009
1pm-3pm

Cost: Free

This compelling documentary shows what really happened during those perilous, pivotal hours. General Secretary Gorbachev and President Bush; the French and the British governments; Chancellor Kohl and General Secretary Krenz; foreign secretaries, ministers and high-ranking officers from both sides (some speaking out for the first time), along with journalists such as NBC News Correspondent Tom Brokaw, describe first-hand what occurred behind the scenes.

This film will be shown in the Churchill's Finest Hour (WWII) room.

Wit & Wisdom Speaker Series

Tuesday
November 17, 2009
6pm-7pm

Topic: "The Phoenix of Aldermanbury: The History and Architecture of the Church of St. Mary the Virgin, Aldermanbury"
Presenter: Dr. Bill Young, Westminster College faculty

Gain insight into this wonderful 12th century church. Dr. Young, a local expert of the Church of St. Mary, will give an intriguing presentation on its heroic, and two-times, mythical life. This program will be held in St. Mary's so that attendees may see visually the architecture discussed.

One of Churchill's hobbies was bricklaying. He laid a brick wall around his Chartwell home. Learn the history of bricklaying and other masonry techniques. Try your hand at building your own brick wall! Reservations are required.

Temporary Exhibit

January 11, 2010-
February 22, 2010

Topic: Dr. Seuss Wants You!

Center for Holocaust and Humanity Education, Cincinnati, Ohio

Based on the book "Dr. Seuss Goes to War" by historian Richard H. Minear, this exhibit showcases more than 400 editorial cartoons from Theodor Seuss Geisel (Dr. Seuss). Geisel focused on the concerns that America needed to address while WWII engulfed the world and demonstrated in simple truth how individuals must become aware, informed and involved in their surroundings to take thoughtful and decisive action.

Children's Program

Saturday
May 1, 2010
11am-Noon

Topic: Beginning Architecture: Church of St. Mary the Virgin, Aldermanbury

Cost: Free

Requirement: Children ages 6-12

We will learn about the architecture of the Church of St. Mary, a 12th century English church and the oldest building in North America. Discussion will follow on how buildings are being reused and adapted, looking at our own community's historic buildings. Reservations are required.

Wit & Wisdom Speaker Series

Tuesday
May 18, 2010
6pm-7pm

Topic: Churchill's "Iron Curtain" Security Team

Presenter: Charles Machon, Historical Services Coordinator, Museum of Missouri Military History

The Museum of Missouri Military History covers the history of all Missouri military, from the Missouri National Guard in 1808 through both World Wars to present day. Tonight's presentation will feature Missouri State Guard members who were the security for Winston Churchill's Fulton visit on March 5, 1946. Come learn how these Missouri military personnel protected one of the greatest world leaders. Original documents, maps, and pictures will be shown.

Temporary Exhibit

June 1, 2010-
July 9, 2010

Topic: The Life Atomic! Growing Up in the Shadow of the A-Bomb
Rogers Historical Museum, Rogers, Arkansas

This exhibit is a discussion about the threats faced by Americans in the early atomic age and the threats that face our nation today. A common thread through the exhibit will be the impact of the bomb on the popular culture of the 1950s and 1960s.

Community Learning Program

Saturday
April 17, 2010
11am-12:30pm

Topic: Photography During Wartimes

Presenter: Kevin Dingman, Westminster College faculty

Cost: $5.00

Photography, presented to the public in 1839, was believed to create images that were accurate representations of the world. In 1859, it was predicted that photography would be able to visually document future wars correctly by generating precise documentation of battles, fortifications, landscapes, soldiers, and military officers

Participants should bring family photos from war to share with the group. This is a hands-on presentation. Topics to be discussed include: photography and war, photojournalism, and the basics of photography. Reservations are required.

26th Annual Crosby Kemper Lecture

Sunday
April 18, 2010
(Date and time
subject to change)

Guest Speaker: TBD

The Crosby Kemper Lectureship was established in 1979 by a grant from the Crosby Kemper Foundation of Kansas City, Missouri. It is intended to provide for lectures by authorities on British History or Sir Winston Churchill at the National Churchill Museum at Westminster College in Fulton, Missouri.

We will send out more information as details develop. You can also go to our website, www.churchillmemorial.org, to get updates on this event.

Community Learning Program

Saturday
January 9, 2010
1pm-2:30pm

Topic: "Writing & Publishing Family Stories"

Cost: $5.00

Maximum: 20 people (ages 13 and up)

Presenter: Cate Richard Dodson, Author and owner/operator Romancing the Past Bed & Breakfast

Ms. Dodson discusses the process of taking a book from manuscript to publication, all on your own. Find out how to use electronic publishing to take your memoir, novel, family history--or any other type of book you happen to have written--to readers everywhere using inexpensive Print-On-Demand technology. Reservations are required.

Wit & Wisdom Speaker Series

Tuesday
January 19, 2010
6pm-7pm

Topic: Winston S. Churchill: Man of Three Centuries

Presenter: Dr. Rob Havers, Executive Director, National Churchill Museum

In honor of the 45th anniversary of Churchill's death, Dr. Havers will discuss the life and times of Churchill indicating the span on his long life and the pace of societal, technological, and political change that he lived through.

Children's Program

Children's Program

Saturday
March 6, 2010
11am-Noon

Topic: Women during World War II

Cost: Free

Requirement: Children ages 6-12

When the United States entered World War II, 12 million women were already working. By the end of the war, the number was up to 18 million. A propaganda campaign began to promote the importance of the war effort and to lure women into the workforce. Children will learn about this campaign and its poster child "Rosie the Riveter". Reservations are required.

At the Movies:

"The Life & Times of Rosie the Riveter"

Saturday
March 6, 2010
1pm-3pm

Cost: Free

Domestic. Shop girl. Waitress. Cook...Those were the jobs for women in the 1930's -- when they could get work. Suddenly the U.S. entry into World War II created an unprecedented demand for new workers. Notions of what was proper work for women changed overnight. Thousands of posters and billboards appeared calling on women to "Do the Job He Left Behind." Rosie the Riveter was born -- the symbol of working women during World War II. This film will be shown in the Churchill's Finest Hour (WWII) room.

Wit & Wisdom Speaker Series

Tuesday
March 16, 2010
6pm-7pm

Topic: Churchill's Women

Presenter: Westminster College Remley's Women Center, co-sponsor

In honor of Women's History month, enjoy a lively discussion on the women in Churchill's life. This presentation will include such women as Jenny Jerome, Churchill's mother; Mrs. Everest, his nanny; and Clementine, his wife.
