Join the Winston Churchill Kids Club

About the WC Kids Club

Our mission is to provide your child with a fun yet educational experience where they learn all sorts of information about World War I, World War II, the Cold War, and, of course, Winston Churchill.

Upon registration, the member will receive a WC Kids Club Savings Stamp Album. Upon date of registration, the member will receive one War Savings Stamp for each activity completed. Once all sixteen stamps are collected, the member will receive a history related prize.

Each month the WC Kids Club member will receive an e-newsletter with that month's calendar of events and club updates. Members also receive a birthday card that can be turned in for a special prize or free museum admission.

Age Group

Children ages 6 to 12

Activities/Calendar of Events

There are a variety of activities scheduled in which members can receive stamps. Ones specifically for younger children are our Children's Programs, which are once a month.

Savings Album and Prizes

All children must be signed up in order to receive a Savings Stamp Album and War Savings Stamps. Please have children bring their Album to each activity.

Club Fees

Registration for WC Kids Club is FREE. However, there may be fees associated with individual activities (not to exceed $5.00).

Please Take Note

At least one parent must accompany their child for every activity!

At The Movies

Saturday
September 18, 2010
1pm-3pm

Title: "The Gathering Storm"

This HBO Films drama is a love story offering an intimate look inside the marriage of Winston and Clementine Churchill during a particularly troubled, though little-known, moment in their lives. In the years before World War II, Churchill found himself on the fringe of British politics: a lone voice in crying out in the wilderness as he warned his country and the world of a Nazi threat.
Run time: 96 minutes

Wit & Wisdom Speaker Series

Tuesday
September 21, 2010
6pm-7pm

Topic: WWII Home Front Posters

Presenter: Jay Antle

Johnson County Community College, Dept. of History

During World War II, posters were a common persuasive advertising tool. Dr. Antle will suggest how the posters were important in making every citizen a soldier and connecting Americans to the war effort. Audience members will also see how the posters progressed and changed over time.

Discussion topics include: what makes a building eligible, filling out the nomination form, where to go for help, and much more!

Holiday Honor Tree

November 1, 2010-
January 7, 2011

Help us decorate our honor tree again! Send a photograph of your loved one who is currently in the military or is a veteran. Pictures of those that have passed away are also welcome. Make sure to send a copy as pictures will not be returned. The tree will be displayed from December 1 – January 7.

Send your photo(s) with the person's name to mandy.plybon@churchillmemorial.org or National Churchill Museum, Attn: Mandy Plybon, 501 Westminster Ave, Fulton, MO 65251.

Operation Baby Shower

November 1, 2010-
January 1, 2011

Operation Baby Shower is a St. Louis, Missouri non-profit organization that recognizes and honors the sacrifices military families make by producing and coordinating unit-wide baby showers and “showers in a box” for pregnant and expecting military families in a deployment or high stress situation. In honor of our own Honor Tree celebration, the Museum will also honor these military moms.

Between November 1, 2010 and January 1, 2011, the museum will have a donation box set up for community members to drop off baby shower donations. On January 8, 2011, we will take these donations and make “showers in a box” to send to military baby showers.

Wit & Wisdom Speaker Series

Tuesday
November 16, 2010
6pm-7pm

Topic: "Where Do I Belong? Holocaust Diaries and Identity"
Presenter: Dr. Sam Goodfellow, Westminster College, Dept of History

The most well-known Holocaust diary is, of course, Anne Frank's diary. Holocaust diaries are a compelling read, capturing as they do the immediate experience of the writer. A key issue for the diarists is identity. How should they interact with their non-Jewish friends in the changed circumstances of the war? Could they still be French or German and also be Jewish? Many of them also struggled with their Jewish identity which was defined more by Hitler than by Jews. Attend this lecture to hear Dr. Goodfellow speak on a variety of holocaust diaries and the concept of identity.

Topic: Lives Remembered: Photographs of a Small Town in Poland
1897-1939
Holocaust Museum Houston

“Lives Remembered” illustrates Jewish life in Europe before the Holocaust through reproductions of more than 100 photographs of the small town of Szczuczyn, Poland. These photographs capture the ordinary lives of the residents during the years leading up to the Nazi invasion, enjoying life, advancements in technology and living free of labels or hate. Upon close examination, one must wonder, were their lives so different from our own?

March 15, 2011
6pm-7pm

Topic: "Dying to be Pretty: the Poisonous Victorian Quest for Beauty"

Presenter: Kenneth H Winn

Former State Archivist of Missouri

Current Washington University of St. Louis teacher

Taking arsenic to whiten feminine skin was a fashionable Victorian beauty secret. Unfortunately, it also opened the door to murder. This talk traces the rise and fall of arsenic as a beauty aid among British and American women and the assistance this pretty poison gave men wishing to dispense with troublesome wives.
