Quilt Project

Cost: Price of admission

Contact: 573-592-5626

Each year, Jonette Ford, fifth grade teacher at West Boulevard Elementary in Columbia, Missouri, teaches her students by way of a mini-museum. Students pick their topic, research, create, write, and produce each piece of the museum. Since 2009, we have displayed their creations in our traveling exhibit gallery. For 2011, we are bringing back one of the first mini-museums created focusing on women's history, which are illustrated through hand stitched quilts.

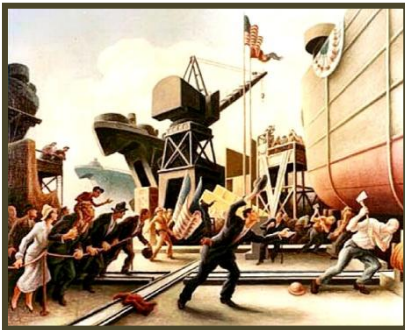

SEPTEMBER 1 2011

Berlin Wall Video Contest begins

Dates: September 1-November 1 2011

Contact: 573-592-6242

Open to all ages, this contest is a tribute to the 22nd anniversary of the fall of the Berlin Wall on November 9. Between September 1 and November 1, submit a two to three minute video expressing your thoughts and feelings regarding the Berlin Wall and its destruction in 1989. Those under age 18, please get a parent or guardian's permission. Be creative! The top video will be selected and posted on the National Churchill Museum's website, sent to local, regional, and national news stations, and featured in an upcoming issue of The Churchillian. Visit our website on September 1 for all rules and regulations.

Wit & Wisdom Speaker Series

"I'm an Unemployed Sweetheart"

5:30 pm-6:30 pm

Cost: Free

Contact: 573-592-6242

Mr. Michael Lasser will speak songs of the Great Depression, particularly on unemployment portrayals of working women, during the decade when popular songs were more interested in work than at any other time. Songs, as always, were about love; yet, at the same time, they reflected the attitudes, values, and behavior of their time. They expressed social concerns within the context of love ballads. In "If I Ever Got a Job Again," an unemployed man is eager to find work so he and his beloved can marry.

Open to the public. All ages welcome. Reservations recommended.

*An Interview with Eleanor Roosevelt,
"First Lady of the World"*

5:30 pm-6:30 pm

Cost: Free

Contact: 573-592-6242

As World War II ended, America experienced the loss of its stalwart leader, President Franklin Roosevelt. After 13 years as First Lady, Eleanor Roosevelt hoped to retire and perhaps write her memoirs. By 1948, the world had changed dramatically and so had Eleanor. She shares her tragedies and triumphs. Born into the opulent wealth of America's "Golden Age" she would grow from the shy, homely orphan into a confident, driven woman. Annealed by personal tragedy, she would emerge as a champion of civil rights, author, and stateswoman.

Open to the public. All ages welcome.
Reservations recommended.

JOIN THE WINSTON CHURCHILL KIDS CLUB

ABOUT THE WC KIDS CLUB

Our mission is to provide your child with a fun yet educational experience where they learn all sorts of information about World War I, World War II, the Cold War, and, of course, Winston Churchill.

Upon registration, the member will receive a WC Kids Club Savings Stamp Album. Upon date of registration, the member will receive one War Savings Stamp for each activity completed. Once all sixteen stamps are collected, the member will receive a history related prize.

Each month the WC Kids Club member will receive an e-newsletter with that month's calendar of events and club updates. Members also receive a birthday card that can be turned in for a special prize or free museum admission.

AGE GROUP

Children ages 6 to 12

ACTIVITIES/CALENDAR OF EVENTS

There are a variety of activities scheduled in which members can receive stamps. Ones specifically for younger children are our Children's Programs, which are once a month.

SAVINGS ALBUM AND PRIZES

All children must be signed up in order to receive a Savings Stamp Album and War Savings Stamps. Please have children bring their Album to each activity.

CLUB FEES

Registration for WC Kids Club is FREE. However, there may be fees associated with individual activities (not to exceed $5.00).

PLEASE TAKE NOTE

At least one parent must accompany their child for every activity.

DISCLAIMER

Photographs will be taken at every event. You will be asked to sign a release form stating the National Churchill Museum has permission to use the photographs. If this is a problem, you must speak with the Education & Public Programs Coordinator.
