

The Museum brings Churchill alive to new generations through sight, sound and touch.

Experience the sights and sounds of life in the trenches on the Western Front during World War I.

See and hear the effects of a London air raid at the height of “The Blitz” as you stand in the midst of a dazzling light and sound show.

Watch Churchill lead Britain through World War II in the stirring film, “Churchill’s Finest Hour,” narrated by world-renowned newsman Walter Cronkite.

Reach out and touch Churchill artifacts and facsimiles of his personal correspondence.

Become a spy, deciphering World War II secret codes or finding clues from the secrets locked in a Cold War briefcase.

Sit back in an overstuffed chair surrounded by the ambiance of an English Gentleman’s Club and laugh while listening to Churchill’s “wit and wisdom.”
